

Fair News Day 5, Wednesday, June 12, 2019

Hello, 4-Hers! Today was the midpoint of fair. Every morning of fair the farm kids feed their animals, clean their pens, do a group barn chore, and exercise their animals; in the evening they feed and exercise their animals again. They also get to chat with visitors and enjoy the fair!

Independent Exhibitors

Even if you are not part of a related 4-H project, you can exhibit your work at fair.

Ross Campbell entered his Lemon Rosemary Shortbread Cookies:

Zerach Chan entered a work on paper, "buddha", and won a 1st place ribbon:

as did Anna Smith for her Paper Goat:

12:30, 3:30, 5:30: Acrobats of China
5:30-9:00: Elkus Ranch Wool Spinning

Photo of the Day:

When the Steer Judging was delayed and then postponed, Jayden Houston and his steer Smokey kept their cool:

Educational Displays

San Carlos 4-Hers shared their learning with the public by creating information boards.

Asher Becker won Best of Show for his display explaining why there aren't chickens at fair this year:

Megan Campbell won a 2nd place ribbon for her panel on hatching chickens:

Sense of Humor Displays

While waiting in the bleachers, the kids played Heads Up and demonstrated laughter and fun to the public:

Posted by: Tina Cole