

Fair News Day 9, Sunday, June 16, 2019

The last day of fair included the All Fair Youth Awards, the last round of chores, and the closing of the livestock barn. Congratulations to everyone who took part in this year's fair and thanks to all the families who came to join in the fun.

Youth livestock exhibitors on the last morning of fair

Pen Pride

Congratulations to all those in the Pen Pride project who raised Chili and Pepper!
Chili weighed in at 300 pounds and Pepper weighed 217 pounds, so their combined weight was 517 pounds. A group of SCEH parents won the silent auction. Thank you to all those who worked the Pen Pride booth to raise money for the county.

Mia and Pepper

Photography

Congratulations to all our SCEH photographers. Their work won multiple ribbons at fair in a variety of forms, including portraits, landscapes, macros, and candid. Thanks to these youth for displaying their photos: Alex Becker, Ross Campbell, Samantha Campbell, Tia Chan, Zerach Chan, Nick Damon, Athena Ekstrom, Hudson Fox, Millie Garrett, Cassie Pfaff, Anna Smith, Peyton Steitz, and Quincy Thuener.

Ladybug photograph by Cassie Pfaff:

Art and Craft

Here are some more entries showing the skill and artistry of our club.
Maggie Forrest won a 1st place ribbon for her crocheted cat toys:

Emma Mulders won a 2nd place ribbon for her leathercraft coin purse:

Anna Smith won 1st place ribbons for her ceramics.
Tree Vase:

Mini Leaf Bowl:

Here is "Two Birds," also designed and crocheted by Gabby Lou:

Thank you to everyone who shared their creativity, enthusiasm, and hard work.
See you in September!

